

94-2-5. Service. (a) Each party filing any pleading or other document with the court shall serve the pleading or other document on all other parties in person or by mail, facsimile, or electronic mail, except when a statute requires a specific manner of service. Postage or costs of service shall be paid by the person serving the pleading.

(b) Service on an attorney of record shall be deemed to be service upon the party represented by that attorney, although nothing in these regulations shall prohibit service on the interested party also. Service by mail shall be considered to be complete upon mailing.

(c) The party responsible for effecting service shall endorse a certificate of mailing or service, or both, upon the pleading showing compliance with these regulations. In the absence of this proof of service or the equivalent, any pleading may be disregarded and deemed null and void.
