AN ACT concerning taxation; relating to reports to the legislature by secretary of revenue.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Kansas:

Section 1. (a) Before each regular session of the legislature, the secretary of revenue shall report to the legislature and the governor on the effect, if it is possible to assess, of exemptions, credits, discounts, exclu-sions, special valuations, special accounting treatments, special rates and special methods of reporting relating to:

(1) State and local sales, excise and use taxes;
(2) individual and corporation income, privilege and premium taxes;
(3) franchise taxes;
(4) mandatory school district general fund levy and ad valorem property taxes for financing local option budgets of school districts; and (5) all other taxes generating more than 5% of state tax revenue in the prior fiscal year.

(b) The report shall include an analysis of each special provision that reduces the amount of tax payable, to include an estimate of the loss of revenue for a six-year three-year period including the current fiscal year and a citation of the statutory or legal authority for the provision.

Sec. 2. (a) The secretary of revenue shall report to the legislature by March 1 of each odd-numbered year on the overall incidence of the income taxes, sales, use and excise taxes, and property taxes. The report shall present information on the distribution of the tax burden: (1) For the overall income distribution, using a systemwide incidence measure such as the suits index or other appropriate measures of equality and inequality; (2) by income classes, including at a minimum deciles of the income distribution; and
(3) by other appropriate taxpayer characteristics.

(b) The incidence analyses shall use the broadest measure of economic income for which reliable data is available.

Sec. 2-3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its publication in the statute book.
