Topeka Man Charged With Sexual Exploitation Of A Child and Other Crimes

TOPEKA, KANSAS – Kyle Smith, 57, of Topeka, Kansas, has been charged by Shawnee County District Attorney Chad Taylor with One Count of Sexual Exploitation Of A Child, a severity level 5, person felony, along with Two Counts of Interference With Law Enforcement: Evidence, each of which are severity level 8, nonperson felonies. The case has been assigned to Division 11 and will be prosecuted by Senior Assistant District Attorney Todd Hiatt. Pursuant to applicable Kansas Supreme Court Rules, as well as prosecutor ethical considerations, no further information can be provided in this matter.

As in all criminal cases, a person is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty. The charging document filed merely contains allegations of criminal conduct.
