

Bring our missing children home

“My poster shows that if a child was missing what a family would be like. I would feel like my family was incomplete if my sister or brother were missing. My poster is a photo of a family with a missing child.”

Johnson County, KS 5th grader