

FLOOD PSA -4

Spring storm season has arrived in Kansas and that means the potential for flooding is also here. Western Kansans are already seeing this due to melting snow from the major winter storm.

This is Major General Tod Bunting, Adjutant General and Director of Kansas Emergency Management, asking you to take flooding seriously. Have a flood insurance policy and know its coverage, keep an emergency kit of food, water and medicine in your home and car, never drive into flooded areas, and always keep a full tank of gas so you can evacuate quickly.
