Statewide Silver Alert issued for missing Stafford woman

STAFFORD COUNTY – The Stafford Police Department requested the Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI) issue a statewide Silver Alert for a missing Stafford woman.

The whereabouts of 60-year-old Amy P. Piper are unknown, and the public's assistance is requested to help locate her.

Piper is believed to be driving a white 2013 Honda Fit bearing Kansas tag 214DKS.

She was last seen in Stafford, Kansas on Friday, March 22. Her family cannot reach her and they are concerned about her uncharacteristic behavior.

Piper is a white female who is 5 ft. 2 in tall, and weighs approximately 110 pounds. She has white hair, and blue eyes.

If you see Amy Piper or her vehicle, please call 911 immediately. If you have other information about her whereabouts, please call the Stafford County Sheriff's Office dispatch at 620-549-3247.
