KBI conducting death investigation in Grant County

GRANT COUNTY– The Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI), the Grant County Sheriff's Office, and the Ulysses Police Department are conducting an investigation into the death of a 1-year-old from Ulysses, Kan.

The Grant County Sheriff's Office and the Ulysses Police Department contacted the KBI for assistance with this investigation on Sunday, Oct. 15 at approximately 12:40 p.m.

Just before noon on Sunday, Oct. 15, 12-month-old Mia Garay was taken to Bob Wilson Memorial Grant County Hospital in Ulysses by a family member. When the child arrived she was not breathing and did not have a pulse. Efforts by medical personnel to revive Garay were unsuccessful, and she was pronounced dead at approximately 12:20 p.m.

An autopsy was performed, though the final autopsy report is pending.

This investigation is ongoing. No further information will be released at this time.
