Published by:

Incident Based Reporting Unit

Methodology

The Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI) compiled the following 2015¹ statistical crime report based on a snapshot of data submitted by local and state law enforcement agencies as of 5/1/2016.

The data represents the most accurate information available, reflecting crime as reported by law enforcement agencies through the Kansas Incident Based Reporting System (KIBRS).

This system enables crime information from standard offense and arrest reports to be reported by the responsible law enforcement agencies. This report does not represent all criminal incidents committed throughout the State of Kansas, as it is dependent on victims reporting crimes to law enforcement agencies and on those agencies submitting incident reports to the KBI.

There are three crime indexes referred to in this report. The indexes are calculated based upon the number of reported crimes per 1,000 in population. The overall crime index is a broad measure of crime in Kansas. The overall index includes both violent and property related offenses. The violent crime index is a broad measure of violent offenses reported in Kansas. The violent crime index consists of murder and non-negligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery, and aggravated assault. The property crime index is a broad measure of property related crime in Kansas and consists of burglary, theft, and motor vehicle theft. Arson is included as an index crime for trend purposes but is not calculated into the index.

This information is designed to support the Crime in the U.S. report published annually by the FBI. However, the FBI excludes certain data when fluctuations fall outside of their mathematical equations, resulting in slightly different numbers than reported here.

Data are gathered by one of three ways:

1. Manual. Reports are mailed from law enforcement agency to the KBI and the data are entered manually by KBI staff into the KIBRS system. These reports must pass a variety of edits in order to be accepted by the system.

2. Electronic. Agencies that have passed a certification process may submit their reports directly into the system through an electronic gateway. These reports must also pass a series of edits in order to be accepted by the system.

3. Direct. Direct reporting, more commonly called summary reporting, involves an agency merely providing the KBI with a count for each crime. This form of reporting is dependent on the agency making proper classification of offenses and does not provide any detailed incident information regarding a case. Direct reporting data were collected on a quarterly basis for 2015.

The following factors should be considered when viewing this data:

1. Beginning with 2005 data, the number of arsons reported for each jurisdiction is included in this report. However, arson figures are not calculated into violent or property indices and are meant to stand on their own.
2. Beginning with 2005 data, this report distinguishes between agencies who have sent no data and those who sent incomplete data. If an agency does not submit at least three months of offense reports or a zero report, they are listed as not having submitted data. If an agency is missing data for a particular number of months it is listed as did not submit complete data.
3. Beginning with 2011 data, this report separates University Police from the county they reside and places them in a grouping of all Campus Police. This was done in order to provide consistency as compared to State Agencies and Tribal Police.
4. The following guidelines are used for purposes of counting offenses: Murders, Rapes, and Aggravated Assaults are counted per victim. Robberies, Burglaries, Thefts, and Arsons are counted per incident. Motor Vehicle Thefts are counted per vehicle stolen.

The final responsibility for data submissions rests with the individual law enforcement agency. Although the KBI makes every effort through its editing procedures, training practices, and correspondence to ensure the validity of the data it receives, the accuracy of the statistics depends primarily on the adherence of each contributor to the established standards of reporting.
